

2010 WRUW Fall Program Guide

More Music. Fewer Hits.

From the General Manager: Oh hi, it's good to see you again!

Thank you for picking up a copy of Scene and taking a look at this season's WRUW Program Guide! It's been a while, though, so let's reacquaint ourselves. How was your summer? Yeah? Ups and downs? I think we can empathize there. At the very least, we've been extremely busy, thanks for asking!

Firstly, we'd like to thank everyone who came out to our 29th Annual Studio-A-Rama festival last month, and a special thanks to those who didn't let a little rain stop them from sticking around and enjoying the second half of the show! The Black Angels did nothing short of continuing a great streak of Studio-A-Rama headliners, and we also saw some incredible sets from the likes of Afternoon Naps, Self-Destruct Button, and of course, Sloth, among others. Thank you to everyone who helped put the festival together, and to all the bands that made the day the tremendous success it was!

We also spent a good part of our summer outside of the station and all over town. We broadcasted from the Hessler Street Fair back in May, from the Cleveland Museum of Art's Summer Solstice Party in July, and came really, really close to broadcasting from Little Italy's Feast of the Assumption in August (Mother Nature has been somewhat uncooperative with us these days). We've also been at the Waterloo Arts Festival, The Showcase in the Circle at the Botanical Gardens, and elsewhere, and we hope you've been able to join in the fun with us!

Of course, as you may know, our community lost its patriarch last month. Cuzin' Dave Wilson, host of "When the Roses Bloom Again" for over 35 years, passed away. Dave was an invaluable member of our community, and his sincere interest in so many types of music, ceaseless dedication to promoting musicians, and his genuine and compassionate nature deeply affected us all. We thank everyone who has been supportive during these times, especially those who came out to support Dave and his family at the benefit held at the Beachland Ballroom and Tavern at the end of August. Needless to say, we miss Dave immensely.

Still, the music must play on, and play on it does! With the start of another school year, we welcome back a number of student programmers who left us over the summer (it's okay guys, we forgive you). We also welcome a number of new shows to the fold, including "Phoenix Lights," "The Fall of Math," and "Iron Die." And still, all the old favorites are still here: Jim's still spinning jazz on Friday nights (with special "Alumni Shows" at the start of every month!), Christine, Ed, and Brandt are still working the weekend morning indie shifts, and Roger is still inciting headbanging throughout the city for Tuesday evening metal. And Dot and Mr. JEG have nobly decided to continue "When the Roses Bloom Again" on Thursday evenings.

So, we hope you'll join us for another season of more music and fewer hits. The schedule's right next to this banter, so take a look for some shows you'd enjoy, and don't be afraid to try something new every now and again. Whether you're thinking to yourself "WRU-what?" or you've glued 91.1 onto your dial, we thank you for taking the time to check us out, and for your support.

Keep on the sunny side,
Adam Spektor
